The funeral of Mrs. Grace Charlotte Knevitt, widow of George M. Knevitt, was held at her home in Midland avenue, Glen Ridge, Monday afternoon. Mrs. Knevitt was a native of the north of Ireland, having come to this country when a child. She was one of the oldest members of Christ Episcopal Church, and was always a faithful attendant till her ill-health confined her at home. The Rev. E. A. White, of Christ Church, conducted the services.

The funeral of Edward Lipke, the two-year-old child of Charles Lipke, of Franklin avenue, who died in the Mountainside Hospital Saturday afternoon from carbolic acid poisoning, was held from his parents' home Tuesday morning. The little one was playing about the room and swallowed the contents of a bottle containing the poison which its mother had taken from a closet with other bottles. Being unable to find a physician the ambulance from the hospital was summoned, and the child was sent to that institution, where he died two hours after.

James Hilton, 33 years old, a native of Philadelphia, but who for the last four years has resided here, was sent to jail by Recorder Cadmus, of Bloomfield, Monday. The charge against Hilton was disorderly conduct, but while in jail he will be examined as to his sanity. Hilton was a sewing machine agent, and boarded with Mrs. Vliet at 50 Locust avenue. He had been acting strangely of late, and Mrs. Vliet became afraid of him and appealed to Chief of Police Collins, who had him committed. Hilton has been writing articles on religious subjects of late. One of them he called the "Evolution of the soul."

Now is the time for lawn seeds and fertilizers. We carry the choicest goods. CODDIN & CADMUS.—Adv.

The Watsessing Juniors won two games of base-ball Saturday. O'Brien, Nuttman and Stonaker did the battery work for the Juniors.

Burning Fire.

When it is considered how old the world's civilization is it seems surprising that man should have only so very recently learned how to make fire easily. The primitive flint and steel method is practically but of the last generation, and that does not appear so very far ahead of friction with wood. It is not astonishing, on the whole, that savages should commonly suppose that fire really exists in wood and stone since it is from these everyday materials that they secure a portion of Prometheus' precious theft from heaven.

Where Eggs Are Currency.

Eggs are current coin in Mayo, Kerry, Donegal and Leitrim. They are everywhere received over the counter in payment for tea, sugar, meal, oil, bread, tobacco, patent medicines and general haberdashery. Accounts are kept open and goods supplied on credit in eggs. Predatory agents traveling through the wilds with worthless teas, itinerant tinkers and musicians, hawkers of tinsel jewelry and holy pictures, all accept this current coin, generally unloading it at the nearest railway town.—Dublin Lady of the House.

Consoling.

Elderly Woocr—I hope you are not impressed by the silly sentimentalists who hold that because you've married once you ought not to marry again? Pretty Widow—Don't let that worry you, dear. I've no such prejudice. My own dear mother was married three times, and I only hope that in all things I may follow her example.

Be Prepared.

A new civilization is holding up new and better prizes, but he who would win must have a better equipment and a finer training than the past required. If the prizes are greater than ever before the preparation also must be greater. He only who is prepared for his chance can hope to succeed.—Success Magazine.

Cause and Effect.

Mrs. Dobson—Bridget told me she saw Mr. and Mrs. Hobson going to church this morning. I wonder what's the matter? Mr. Dobson—Why, either Mr. Hobson has had another attack of heart trouble or Mrs. Hobson has a new hat.

Revenged.

"It took you an awfully long time to pull that fellow's tooth," said the assistant.

"Yes" answered the dentist grimly; "he married the girl I loved."—Detroit Tribune.

There is a strength of quiet endurance as significant of courage as the most daring feats of prowess.—Tuckerman.

Like Finding Money.

W. W. Keyler, the popular druggist, is making an offer that is just like finding money, for he is selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount he agrees to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty-cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently through the solicitation of Druggist W. W. Keyler that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents. He urged the proprietors to allow him to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified his good judgment, for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure. But if by any chance it should not, W. W. Keyler will return your money.

The specific is very pleasant to take, coming in the form of small granules, and there are sixty doses in every package. It is especially convenient when traveling, and no one should start on a journey without a bottle of this reliable medicine.—Adv.

No Notion of Real Trouble.

"I bet I get into more trouble than any man in this state," volunteered the young fellow who had come in the clubhouse. "Nothing in the trouble line overlooks me. Why, I'd be afraid to marry"—

"What! Ain't you married?" ejaculated the red nosed elderly party who was hovering over the gratis lunch. "Boy, you don't know what trouble is."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Charity.

She—I'm glad we went. It was an excellent performance—and for such a charitable purpose. Her Husband—Yes, indeed! We all feel a thrill of satisfaction when we do something for charity and get the worth of our money at the same time.—London Tit-Bits.

Intended.

Bills—You made a funny break in congratulating the bride's father instead of the groom. Wills—No, I didn't. I've a daughter, too, and I know what they cost.—Chicago Journal.

Just as you are pleased at finding faults you are displeased at finding perfection.—Lavater.

Seed potatoes and fertilizers at Fronapfel Bros.—Adv.
